

Stuff happens. Get ahead of the unexpected.

Cover expenses your major medical doesn't by enrolling in [accident, critical illness and/or hospital indemnity] insurance.

Help cover medical and non-medical expenses as a result of an accidental injury or sickness. These plans are a cost-effective way to complement your health insurance by paying cash benefits directly to you. You can use the money to pay for deductibles, out-of-pocket medical expenses, groceries, dog sitting and more.

Here's some coverage examples:

[Accident insurance]

[Broken bones]
[Emergency room treatment]
[Ambulance]
[X-rays]
[Therapy]

[Critical illness insurance]

[Stroke]
[Heart attack]
[Cancer]
[Major organ failure]

[Hospital indemnity insurance]

Events requiring a hospital stay]

Prepare for the unexpected and sign up for coverage during [annual/open] enrollment: [Month day - Month day, year].

How do these insurance options work?

- Choose the products and coverage during [annual/open] enrollment
- Submit a claim if you get [hurt, diagnosed with a critical illness or hospitalized]

- [Claims may be paid out under multiple products. For example, if you are hospitalized due to an accident, it may be payable under accident and hospital indemnity insurance.]
- Receive your payment and use it how you want
